As aftermath to ~~Slovak Republic's~~ anti-Western speeches at Belgrade Conference, domestic political pressure has built up to stop further licensing of exports to Poland. Pending a full review of policy, the Department of Commerce has ceased to issue licenses although special arrangements were made for the licensing of a shipment of scrap a few days ago.

US policy toward Poland both with regard to trade and aid will probably be reviewed by National Security Council Tuesday or Wednesday. In advance of this discussion, would greatly appreciate your views formulated in context of our broad policy objectives.
